A telegram dated 05.11.2005 sent by the petitioner seeking a direction to the respondents to produce her husband viz., B. Malleswar Rao, who was taken away by the respondents, before this Court and set him at liberty, is taken up as writ petition.

The 1st respondent filed a counter-affidavit stating that the alleged detenu was arrested by the Circle Inspector of Police, Raydurg Circle, as he is accused No.16 in Crime No.28 of 2005 registered for the offences punishable under sections 147, 148, 448, 427, 395 and 307 read with 149 IPC and 25 (1)(b)(a) and 27 of the Indian Arms act, and accused No.5 in Crime No.29 of 2005 registered for the offences punishable under sections 147, 148, 452, 395 IPC and Section 25 (1)(b)(a) of the Indian Arms Act of Bommanahal Police station. It is also stated that the alleged detenu was produced before the learned Judicial First Class Magistrate, Kalyandurg, who is in charge of Judicial First Class Magistrate of Rayadurg on 8.11.2005 and he was remanded to judicial custody.

It is also submitted across the Bar by the learned Advocate General that the alleged detenu was an accused in the above crimes and therefore, he was arrested and remanded to judicial custody.

In view of the statement made by the learned Advocate General and in view of averments in the counter-affidavit that the alleged detenu is an accused in the above crimes, we feel that no further orders are necessary in this writ petition.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.
